Mayor Tom Sutton called the special meeting to order at 5:30 p.m.

Ben Cutler was present to ask for permission for street closures for the Rainbow Run 5K race on November 2, 2019. The race will start at the Courthouse pavilion and travel around Town to the First Baptist Church. The Board looked at the information presented and decided that no street closures were needed with the route that this race was taking. No was action taken by the Board.

Kaye McConnell made an announcement regarding the Understanding Trauma: Building Self-Healing Communities Dinner with a Speaker happening on Tuesday, November 12 from 6-8 pm

The Board continued with a workshop session.

Bree Clawson came to the Board requesting street closures for a Spook 5K race on October 26th from 6-7 pm around Town. The Board could not grant this request for street closures for the time period requested on a Saturday evening in October.

The Board reviewed the information regarding the two companies that the Town is looking at for debit, credit, and online payments.

The Board continued with the Ordinance Review
